

acumen style sessions

autumn 2009

At acumen we believe style is the essence of successful dressing. Yet to realise this sometimes takes a little guidance and advice. Following on from the success of previous style sessions, we are proud to release our latest topics for both man & woman. Each session has been carefully designed, to offer a wide bank of knowledge and tips to ease each individual into understanding successful style. The workshops are held in store and within small groups.

Wearable Luxury with Mela Purdie

Well it's about time to discover the freedom that Mela Purdie has brought to the Australian market. Rodney (creative director of Acumen) with a representative from Mela will impart their knowledge of the label through highlighting this seasons key shapes, fabrics and then how to wear the label to suit you.
